

Language of the Discipline

Ekuwah teaches us that names are an important part of your identity, family, and culture. What is YOUR name? Write it loud and proud! Does your name have a special meaning behind it?

ALEXIS
ANNE

My mother named me after her sister (my aunt) because they have such a special bond.

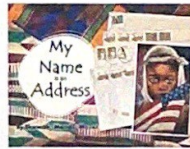

Across Disciplines

How are YOUR customs, values, and traditions the same or different from those described in the book?

Ekuwah and I are similar in that _____.

Something different about us is _____.

My Name is an Address
By Ekuwah (Mends) Moses

I thought that _____ was the most interesting part because _____.

The theme, or "big idea" of this book is _____.

I think Ekuwah wants us to know _____.

Multiple Perspectives

Which letter or part from the book was the most interesting to you? Why?

Big Idea

What do you think the THEME of this book is? What is Ekuwah trying to teach us?